

FCC,

I would like to express my disappointment with your taking advantage current events in an attempt to repeal rules that prohibit a media company from owning both a newspaper and a TV station in the same geographic area.

I would urge you to reconsider repealing these regulations solely because of pressure from large media firms. There is no doubt in my mind that these companies are doing just fine, as compared with other sectors of the economy, and with the present crisis becoming such a media-based ordeal.

If there is any time where honest reporting will aid the public in making decisions, it is now. Please do not make it harder than it already is for the majority of Americans to find it.

Ryan Jonna